What to expect

① We review your report

Our specialists in the Civil Rights Division carefully read every report to identify civil rights violations, spot trends, and determine if we have authority to help with your report.

② Our specialists determine the next step

We may decide to:

Open an investigation or take some other action within the legal authority of the Justice Department.

Collect more information before we can look into your report.

Recommend another government agency that can properly look into your report. If so, we'll let you know.

In some cases, we may determine that we don't have legal authority to handle your report and will recommend that you seek help from a private lawyer or local legal aid organization.

③ When possible, we will follow up with you

We do our best to let you know about the outcome of our review. However, we may not always be able to provide you with updates because:

We're actively working on an investigation or case related to your report.

We're receiving and actively reviewing many requests at the same time.

If we are able to respond, we will contact you using the contact information you provided in this report. Depending on the type of report, response times can vary. If you need to reach us about your report, please refer to your report number when contacting us. This is how we keep track of your submission.

What you can do next

① Contact local legal aid organizations or a lawyer if you haven't already

Legal aid offices or members of lawyer associations in your state may be able to help you with your issue.

American Bar Association, visit www.americanbar.org/groups/legal_services/flh-home or call (800) 285-2221

Legal Services Corporation (or Legal Aid Offices), to help you find a legal aid lawyer in your area visit www.lsc.gov/find-legal-aid

② Get help immediately if you are in danger

If you reported an incident where you or someone else has experienced or is still experiencing physical harm or violence, or are in immediate danger, please call 911 and contact the police.

Case number 23CR03398 Johnson County District Court. On 10/16/2023 Me and a patient Joseph Connor was heading to Colorado from Georgia to submit medial research to a company hosting the psychedelic cup in a rented Private Automobile with USDOT Number 4144539 displayed. When I was stopped by Johnson County Sheriff, I hand the officer the Traffic Stop Lawful Notice with USDOT Number listed on it, my status as a US National and minister, and purpose for traveling. This notice States it must be introduce as prima facie Discovery Evidence in said action but wasn't. Office then stated he smelled marijuana and he needed to search the car, when I refused the officer got hostel . I told the officer I had a medical prescription for the marijuana and was taking samples to be tested. Then under duress as he was armed my patient and I were forced to step out the car, and he begun to search the car finding Cash of 2500, personal prescription Adderall, all vitamin enhanced medical research to include supplement pills, marijuana, and mushrooms individually label was confiscated from the trunk the car. We were arrested and charged with felony Possession with the intent to distribute. Since date of arrest there has been Securities Fraud, Conspiracy, false arrest, and defamation of character. A number of Securities bonds have been open in my name which violates copyright agreement under CO UUC Financing Statement #20232104999 and Legal Notice & Demand Admiralty contract, Public Officers can and will be personally liable and sued for damages. Since date of arrest I have attempt to handle the matter in private nature, with only disregard to any and all affidavits and motions sent to be filed to the Judge, DA, and Clerk.
