Claimant decrees that no paper receipt to the said utility company regarding said tax is needed as long as the said utility company updates their records to reveal this agreement and sends to Claimant proof of this update as shown on their records. This Clause shall apply to any and all utilities provided to the domicile of Claimant and the domicile of every member of Claimant's House forever. Any disconnection of any utility after service of Claim shall be deemed and seen and found to be a retaliatory action against Claimant as stated in Clause 13) below and shall then bind the retaliatory trustee to all the Clauses and obligations of sections 13), 14) and 15) under Binding Clause Three below. This Clause shall be enforced as stated herein.

- m) Supremacy clause: All Clauses, words, law, maxims, decrees, executive orders, orders, facts, findings, definitions, rules, terms, conditions, agreements, obligations, statements of wish and will, protections, and means stated herein by Claimant regarding Claimant, the Estate and Trust(s) supersede any and all other of the same, or like kind, by any appointed trustee, Bound Trustee or third party, at any time and place forever, nunc pro tunc, et usque ad finem temporis. Claim supersedes and predates as well as replaces any and all prior agreement(s) between Claimant and all trustee(s), and is binding on all parties and irrevocable. Furthermore the parties to Claim agree, from the moment of their binding actions as stated herein, to the terms and conditions of Claim and agree that Claim supersedes and predates as well as replaces any other existing or future agreements, contracts, wills, pledges, oaths, rulings, court findings, claims, judgments, charges, hearings, orders, liens, fiduciary agreements, letters, administration or vesting of power that contradict anything stated herein. All trustee(s) agree that all final judgments entered by Claimant's court of record, all arbitration awards given by an arbitrator regarding any dispute relating to Claim and all judgements entered on same shall be binding on all trustee(s), in any and all jurisdictions, shall be confirmed upon demand by any and all courts of Claimant's choosing, and shall take precedence over all matters regarding the Estate and Trust(s) at present and forthwith from the date of entry of said final judgment and or arbitration award and or confirmation or judgment upon said award(s). All parties agree that a judgment of the court of Claimant's choice, for any arbitration award given regarding claim, shall be entered upon the award made pursuant to the arbitration and that said judgement shall be entered upon the said award within one year after the award is made. Furthermore all Bound Trustee(s) are estopped from maintaining and/or bringing forth any actions against Claimant, Claimant's heirs, and/or bringing forth the same against all that is stated in List regarding the Estate and Trust(s) permanently. Exceeding this estoppel shall be seen and determined by Claimant, Claimants court of record and all arbitrators as a retaliation against Claimant.
- n) Severability clause: If any Clause, provision, claim, statement, fact, section, condition, requirement, term, obligation or condition of Claim is found by a common law court of record to be unlawful, void or unenforceable, the remaining said shall remain in full force and effect and shall continue to be valid and fully enforceable.
- o) Claimants Obligation to Discharge Trustees in Honor: Trustees in Honor agree that they shall remain trustee(s) until they fulfill all the executive orders below and instructions from Claimant stated herein, as well as all other past and future orders from Claimant regarding everything stated in List within 90 days of service of Claim. Once said executive orders are fulfilled to the satisfaction of Claimant, Claimant will, upon request from said trustee(s), send a signed and sealed letter of honorable discharge to any and all trustee(s) who perform said, to the satisfaction of Claimant. Failure, by any Trustee in Honor, to faithfully execute all Clauses herein, within the terms stated herein, shall result in a lawful default of the bond stated in section 12) a) and if in the event a trustee has failed to post a bond, as stated herein, an action of debt in a court of record, and or binding arbitration proceedings, shall be commenced against all trustees in default, for the said amount of the bond and liens shall be placed on the trustee's property, as stated in section 12) c) and 14) e) for the same amount and kind as stated in the bond amount in 12) a) below and furthermore trustee(s) agree to forfeit the agreed distribution of Estate and Trust fund assets (Trustee in Honor compensation) as stated in 6) p) below, forever.

- p) Trustee in Honor compensation clause: Trustees in Honor shall be compensated by Claimant in the amount of 10% of whatever funds, financial instruments, bonds, accounts and the like of a financial nature (herein "Estate and Trust funds") that they account for and deliver to Claimant, as stated in List, regarding the Estate and Trust(s). All of these Estate and Trust funds shall be converted into Lawful consideration (gold or silver) before the 10% payment to the Trustees in Honor, and shall be distributed to Trustee in Honor, who prove to the satisfaction of Claimant: 1) That they have fulfilled the orders stated herein that are required to have a full accounting, settlement, delivery, recovery and livery of seisin of that portion of the Estate and Trust funds that they have administered and that the Trustee in Honor shall have fulfilled their obligation to settle and/or terminate or collapse all Trust(s) that they are aware of as stated herein. 2) Trustees are to keep proper records of all transactions of the Estate and Trust, are to keep proper records of all actions they take in regards to the Estate and Trust(s) and deliver to Claimant those said records as part of the proof of the Trustees in Honor faithful execution of all Clauses that they be bound to herein to receive the distribution stated above. Because the Estate and Trust funds are the sole lawful property of Claimant and the Bound Trustee(s) have a duty to return that which does not belong to them, the Bound Trustee(s) fully agree and stipulate to the fact that the 10% compensation to them, as stated herein, is, by intendment of law, to their advantage. Said compensation shall be given, upon request, with letters of discharge from this trustee appointment, as stated in section 6) o) after the Trustees in Honor faithfully execute said. As an example: If a Trustee in Honor holds an account in the Estate name and performs as required as stated herein and that account is in the amount of $1,000,000, that Trustee in Honor shall be compensated in the amount of $100,000, converted into silver or gold at the current exchange rate. Any debts incurred, by the Trustees in Honor, against the Estate or Trust(s) prior to this audit will be deducted from the 10% settlement offer. If the debts accrued exceed the value of the 10%, no compensation will be provided and a bill shall instead be issued for the outstanding balance. Land titles, land rights, land, anything upon, above, within or below the land, children, the bodies of Claimant or members of Claimant's House or any other thing that would cause a harm if divided, shall not be part of the 10% payment nor be included in the calculation for the 10% payment.
- q) Non-aggression clause: All trustees who bind themselves to Claim to any degree agree to be bound and adhere to the non-aggression principal of natural law at all times whilst under obligation to perform under Claim and to NOT cause any harm, coercion, theft, trespass, murder, rape or human trafficking against Claimant or members of Claimant's House. Furthermore Bound Trustees shall not trespass upon any rights of Claimant, or they will agree to be Trustee(s) in Default and thereby bind themselves to all the Clauses under Binding Clause Three.
- r) Help and support clause: All trustees, who bind themselves to Claim, to any degree, agree to be under absolute obligation to inform, teach, help and support Claimant settle the entire gross Estate at all times and collapse the Trust(s) as stated herein until such time as said trustees are discharged from being a Trustee in Honor or other degree of trustee, by Claimant, as stated in section 6) o). Any failure to perform this absolute obligation will cause said trustees to agree to be bound to all the Clauses under a Trustee in Dishonor below.

- s) Inclusion of all trustees by employment or agency: If any employee, agent or member of any appointed trustee listed herein administers any aspect of the Estate or Trust(s) in any way, thereby binding them to Claim all other employees, agents, contractors, men and women of that same appointed trustee shall also agree to be bound to Claim in like kind and to like degree.
- t) Arbitration and court of record clauses regarding procedure of disputes arising from Claim:
ARBITRATION: Claim constitutes an agreement and binding contract between Claimant and all Bound Trustee(s) and third parties who bind themselves to Claim by performing any Binding Actions stated herein. In the event a Bound Trustee fails to perform as required herein under any Binding Clause Claimant has the choice at that time to pursue all disputes related to Claim by binding arbitration or by a court of record as defined herein. If Claimant choses binding arbitration all Trustee(s) agree that the arbitrator to any dispute regarding claim shall be appointed and chosen by Claimant and shall be the designated arbitrator for said dispute. In the event of non-acceptance of appointment as arbitrator and/or any physical or mental incapacity to act as arbitrator the Claimant shall have the authority to select any neutral(s)/arbitrator(s) that qualify and any controversy or claim arising out of or relating in any way to Claim or with regard to its formation, interpretation or breach, and any issues of substantive or procedural arbitrability shall be settled by arbitration. The arbitrator will not and does not have the authority to disregard or refuse to enforce the law decreed herein nor the law decreed by Claimant in any other paperwork regarding the Estate and Trust(s) which is submitted to the arbitrator. All Disputes arising from Claim shall first be attempted to be solved by and through negotiations between Claimant and appointed trustee(s). If the Claimant and any appointed trustee(s) cannot resolve a dispute through negotiations, and the Claimant chooses to resolve the dispute by arbitration, the Claimant and all Bound Trustee(s) agree and consent to submit any and all disputes, which could otherwise be submitted to a court of competent jurisdiction, to arbitration. Arbitration hereunder these conditions said, shall be the Claimant and all appointed trustee(s) or third parties exclusive remedy and the arbitrator is empowered under this Claim to make any or all necessary and appropriate order(s), pre-award ruling(s), and award(s) granting both legal, lawful and equitable relief to enforce the terms and obligations of this Claim, including all matters relating hereto and arising therefrom. In the event of any conflict of laws, maxims, facts, provisions, terms, Clauses, conditions, definitions, orders or rules, regarding any arbitration dispute of Claim, the same stated in Claim shall govern. If Claimant chooses binding arbitration, all Bound Trustee(s), regardless of the degree to which they bind themselves to Claim, agree to enter into and consent to binding arbitration under the terms and conditions of Claim and all Bound Trustee(s), of any degree, waive all rights to vacate, modify, appeal, or collaterally attack the decisions, rulings, orders, remedies, and awards (both interim and final) of the arbitrator. All United States trustee(s) furthermore agree that transporting people or persons without their consent across State lines is human trafficking and evidences a transaction involving or affecting "commerce" within the meaning of Title 9 U.S.C. § 1. Furthermore, all Bound Trustee(s) agree that Claimant can secure damages via any and all actions under reservation of right of prosecution at any time for ALL injuries sustained and inflicted upon Claimant the Estate or Trust(s) for any wrongs committed against the same as set, established, agreed and consented to herein by the Bound Trustee(s), by their Binding Actions, to include but not be limited to: constitutional impermissible misapplication of statute(s)/law(s) regarding Claimant, the Estate and Trust(s), which include but are not limited to: alleged Criminal Case/Cause; trespass, false arrest, false imprisonment, fraud, conspiracy, theft, deprivation of rights, human trafficking, all tort claims, trespass of title, probate fraud, property, and the like; and, ALL other known and unknown trespasses and moral wrongs committed through ultra vires act(s) of ALL involved herein; whether by commission or omission. Trustee(s) consent to and agree that Claim, all other executive orders hereafter served upon the said Bound Trustee(s), and the required bond that all Trustee(s) in Dishonor must post as stated herein, becomes the security agreement between Claimant and said trustee(s) under commercial law. Trustee(s) consent to and agree that judgement shall be entered and confirmed on any arbitration award, in favor of Claimant, of any dispute regarding Claim, and consent to and agree that they have no right, authority or cause to attack or vacate same, by any means, nor for any reason.

Non-Indians who lawfully enter tribal lands remain subject to a tribe's power to exclude them, which power includes the lesser power to tax or place other conditions on the non-Indian's conduct or continued presence on the reservation. The Tribe's role as commercial partner with petitioners should not be confused with its role as sovereign. It is one thing to find that the Tribe has agreed to sell the right to use the land and take valuable minerals from it, and quite another to find that the Tribe has abandoned its sovereign powers simply because it has not expressly reserved them through a contract. To presume that a sovereign forever waives the right to exercise one of its powers unless it expressly reserves the right to exercise that power in a commercial agreement turns the concept of sovereignty on its head. *Merrion, Et Al, dba Merrion & Bayless, Et Al v.     - (6) The only valid seal of any court of record, or other court in which Claimant is a plaintiff, counter-plaintiff, claimant, petitioner, accuser, or complainant is Claimant's own House Seal which is affixed below to Claim.
  - b) INFERIOR COURTS: Inferior courts are those whose jurisdiction is limited and special and whose proceedings are not according to the course of the common law.” Ex Parte Kearny, 55 Cal. 212; Smith v. Andrews, 6 Cal. 652
  - c) COURT: An agency of the sovereign created by it directly or indirectly under its authority, consisting of one or more officers, established and maintained for the purpose of hearing and determining issues of law and fact regarding legal rights and alleged violations thereof, and of applying the sanctions of the law, authorized to exercise its powers in the course of law at times and places previously determined by lawful authority. [Isbill v. Stovall, Tex.Civ.App., 92 S.W.2d 1067, 1070; Black's Law Dictionary, 4th Ed., page 425]
  - d) MAGISTRATE: The word “magistrate” does not necessarily imply an officer exercising any judicial functions, and might very well be held to embrace notaries and commissioners of deeds. Shultz v. Merchants' Ins. Co., 57 Mo. 336.
  - e) CLAUSE, contracts. A particular disposition which makes part of a treaty; of an act of the legislature; of a deed, written agreement, or other written contract or will. When a clause is obscurely written, it ought to be construed in such a way as to agree with what precedes and what follows, if possible. Vide Dig. 50, 17, 77; Construction; Interpretation.
  - f) CONDITION, contracts, wills. In its most extended signification, a condition is a clause in a contract or agreement which has for its object to suspend, to rescind, or to modify the principal obligation; or in case of a will, to suspend, revoke, or modify the devise or bequest. 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 730. "A condition is any portion or agreement which regulates what the parties have a mind should be done, if a case they foresee should come to pass." Co. Litt. 201 a.

g) CONDITION, persons. The situation in civil society which creates certain relations between the individual, to whom it is applied, and one or more others, from which mutual rights and obligations arise. Thus the situation arising from marriage gives rise to the conditions of husband and wife that of paternity to the conditions of father and child. Domat, tom. 2, liv. 1, tit. 9, s. 1, n. 8.

2. In contracts every one is presumed to know the condition of the person with whom he deals. A man making a contract with an infant cannot recover against him for a breach of the contract, on the ground that he was not aware of his condition.

h) OBLIGATION. In its general and most extensive sense, obligation is synonymous with duty. In a more technical meaning, it is a tie which binds us to pay or to do something agreeably to the laws and customs of the country in which the obligation is made. Just. Inst. 1. 3, t. 14. The term obligation also signifies the instrument or writing by which the contract is witnessed. And in another sense, an obligation still subsists, although the civil obligation is said to be a bond containing a penalty, with a condition annexed for the payment of money, performance of covenants or the like; it differs from a bill, which is generally without a penalty or condition, though it may be obligatory. Co. Litt. 172. It is also defined to be a deed whereby a man binds himself under a penalty to do a thing. Com. Dig. Obligation, A. The word obligation, in its most technical signification, ex vi termini, imports a sealed instrument. 2 S. & R. 502; 6 Verm. 40; 1 Blackf. 241; Harp. R. 434; 2 Porter, 19; 1 Bald. 129. See 1 Bell's Com. b. 3, p. 1, c. 1, page 293; Bouv. Inst. Index, h. t.

6. A civil obligation is one which has a binding operation in law, vinculum juris, and which gives to the obligee the right of enforcing it in a court of justice; in other words, it is an engagement binding on the obligor. 12 Wheat. It. 318, 337; 4 Wheat. R. 197.

14. A principal obligation is one which is the most important object of the engagement of the contracting parties.

16. An absolute obligation is one which gives no alternative to the obligor, but he is bound to fulfil it according to his engagement.

20. A determinate obligation, is one which has for its object a certain thing; as an obligation to deliver a certain horse named Bucephalus. In this case the obligation can only be discharged by delivering the identical horse.

31. The obligation is both personal and real when the obligor has bound himself, and pledged his estate for the fulfilment of his obligation.

i) PRIMARY. That which is first or principal; as primary evidence, or that evidence which is to be admitted in the first instance, as distinguished from secondary evidence, which is allowed only when primary evidence cannot be had.

2. A primary obligation is one which is the principal object of the contract; for example, the primary obligation of the seller is to deliver the thing sold, and to transfer the title to it. It is distinguished from the accessory or secondary obligation to pay damages for not doing so. 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 702.

j) TERM, contracts. This word is used in the civil law to denote the space of time granted to the debtor for discharging his obligation; there are express terms resulting from the positive stipulations of the agreement; as, where one undertakes to pay a certain sum on a certain day and also terms which tacitly result from the nature of the things which are the object of the engagement, or from the place where the act is agreed to be done. For instance, if a builder engage to construct a house for me, I must allow a reasonable time for fulfilling his engagement.

2. A term is either of right or of grace; when it makes part of the agreement and is expressly or tacitly included in it, it is of right when it is not part of the agreement, it is of grace; as if it is not afterwards granted by the judge at the requisition of the debtor. Poth. on Oblig. P. 2, c. 3, art. 3; 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 719 et seq.

- k) The term "records" shall mean all records, system of records, library catalogs, lists, files, optical, handwriting, typewriting, printing, photostating, photographing, photocopying, electronic and physically stored information and every other means of recording including letters, words, pictures, sounds, or symbols, or combinations thereof, as well as papers, maps, magnetic or paper tapes, photographic films or prints, microfilm, microfiche, magnetic or punched cards, discs, drums, or other means of recording or retaining meaningful content.
- l) ESTATE. 1. In its most extensive sense, it is applied to signify every thing of which riches or, fortune may consist and includes personal and real property; hence we say personal estate, real estate. 8 Ves. 504. 2. An estate, in common law, is the net worth of a man at any point in time living or dead. It is the sum of a man's assets – legal rights, interests and entitlements to property of any kind – less all liabilities at that time. 3. All that a man owns in law.
- m) FREEHOLD, estates. An estate of freehold is an estate in lands or other real property, held by a free tenure, for the life of the tenant or that of some other person; or for some uncertain period. It is called liberum tenementum, frank tenement or freehold; it was formerly described to be such an estate as could only be created by livery of seisin, a ceremony similar to the investiture of the feudal law. But since the introduction of certain modern conveyances, by which an estate of freehold may be created without livery of seisin, this description is not sufficient.
2. There are two qualities essentially requisite to the existence of a freehold estate. 1. Immobility; that is, the subject-matter must either be land, or some interest issuing out of or annexed to land. 2. A sufficient legal indeterminate duration; for if the utmost period of time to which an estate can last, is fixed and determined, it is not an estate of freehold. For example, if lands are conveyed to a man and his heirs, or for his life, or for the life of another, or until he shall be married, or go to Europe, he has an estate of freehold; but if such lands are limited to a man for one hundred or five hundred years, if he shall so long live, he has not an estate of freehold. Cruise on Real Property t. 1, s. 13, 14 and 15 Litt. 59; 1 Inst. 42, a; 5 Mass. R. 419; 4 Kent, Com. 23; 2 Bouv. Inst. 1690, et seq. Freehold estates are of inheritance or not of inheritance. Cruise, t. 1, s. 42.
- n) FREEHOLDER. A person who is the owner of a freehold estate.
- o) FREEMAN. One who is in the enjoyment of the right to do whatever he pleases, not forbidden by law. One in the possession of the rights enjoyed by, the people generally.
- p) SHALL. Used to express a command or exhortation, used in laws, regulations, contracts, or directives to express what is mandatory.
- q) Dollars as defined herein shall mean: – each to be of the value of a Spanish milled dollar as the same is now current and to contain three hundred and seventy-one grains and four sixteenth parts of a grain of pure or four hundred and sixteen grains of standard silver. As per [1 U.S. Stat. 246, Sec. 9 (1792).]
- r) SOVEREIGNTY. The union and exercise of all human power possessed in a state; it is a combination of all power; it is the power to do everything in a state without accountability; to make laws, to execute and to apply them: to impose and collect taxes, and, levy, contributions; to make war or peace; to form treaties of alliance or of commerce with foreign nations, and the like.
