Notice and Declaration of Divorce

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I, Kenneth Paul Davis Jr., the undersigned, declare and affirm the following:

1. I hereby declare my divorce from Alania Donuel Washington, with the intent to grant Alania Donuel Washington the freedom to marry another person.
2. This declaration is made of my own free will, without any duress or coercion.
3. I assert the legal principle of Res judicata, meaning that the matters contained herein are finally settled and may not be re-litigated.
4. I affirm the following legal principles, as set forth in relevant case law:
 - a. "Jurisdiction can be challenged at any time."
 - b. "Jurisdiction, once challenged, cannot be assumed and must be decided." – Basso v. Utah Power & Light Co., 395 F 2d 906, 910.
 - c. "...[H]owever late this objection [to jurisdiction] has been made, or may be made in any cause, in an inferior or appellate court of the United States, it must be considered and decided BEFORE any court can move ONE FURTHER STEP IN THE CAUSE; as any movement is necessarily the exercise of jurisdiction." – Rhode Island Massachusetts, 37 U.S. 657, 718, 9 L.Ed. 1233 (1838).
 - d. "Once challenged, jurisdiction cannot be assumed, it must be proved to exist." – Stuck v. Medical Examiners, 94 Ca 2d 751, 211 P2d 289.
 - e. "There is no discretion to ignore that lack of jurisdiction." – Joyce v. US, 474 F2d 215.
 - f. "Where jurisdiction is contested, the burden of establishing it rests upon the plaintiff." – Loos v American Energy Savers, Inc., 168 I11.App.3d 558, 522 N.E.2d 841 (1988).

g. "Court must prove on the record all jurisdiction facts related to the jurisdiction asserted." – Lantana v. Hopper, 102 F. 2d 188; Chicago v. New York, 37 FSupp. 150.

h. "No sanction can be imposed absent proof of jurisdiction." – Standard v. Olsen, 74 S.Ct. 768.

i. "Where there is no jurisdiction, there is no judge; the proceeding is as nothing. Such has been the law from the days of the Marshalsea, 10 Coke 68; also Bradley v. Fisher, 13 Wall 335, 351.

j. "A void judgment is one which, from its inception, was a complete nullity and without legal effect." – Lubben v. Selective Service System Local Bd. No. 27, 453 F.2d 645, 14 A.L.R. Fed. 298 (C.A. 1 Mass. 1972); Hobbs v. U.S. Office of Personnel Management, 485 F.Supp. 456 (M.D. Fla. 1980).

This declaration is my final statement on this matter, and I affirm its validity and the legal principles contained herein.
