Because of this, Claimant agrees to pay all trustees an administrative payment according to section 6) p) below.
 - d) Revocation of all powers beyond Claim and other executive orders of Claimant: Claimant hereby revokes any presumed or actual powers of the trustee(s) enumerated

- in i) through xxxiii) above or of any third party whatsoever not vested herein or vested in any other executive orders given to the appointed trustee(s) by Claimant to administer in any way the Estate, Trust(s), and all stated in List below regarding the same and any other thing belonging to the Estate or Trust(s) in any capacity and in any jurisdiction, realm, sea, or see for any reason whatsoever. Claimant specifically objects, denounces, rescinds, annuls, discharges, disavows, condemns, and reverses any actions or administration taken by any appointed trustee(s) or third parties that is contrary to Claim and/or any other orders which bear Claimant's said Seal, signature, and/or thumb print, and all said actions and administration are hereby abated in all jurisdictions forever. Furthermore, all Bound Trustee(s) shall recognize the same.
- e) Vested powers: All powers herein vested in all Bound Trustees and all powers vested in all other executive orders regarding the Estate and Trust(s) from Claimant that are both signed and sealed as below are vested in Bound Trustees under good behavior and within the term of one hundred and twenty days (120) after being process served with Claim and/or having notice of Claim. - f) Faithful execution of all executive orders: All Executive orders in Claim shall be faithfully executed by all Bound Trustee(s) as shall be for any past or future instructions or orders that Claimant expressly gives, has given, or will give to any Trustee in Honor or to other third party that bear both Claimant's Seal and signature which are both affixed below.

First Trustee(s) in Honor, in addition to agreeing to all that is stated in Binding Clause One, are also bound to perform the following: First Trustee(s) in Honor shall inform and give notice to all other appointed trustees of this Claim in writing and provide all of them with a copy of Claim at their expense. Furthermore, first Trustee(s) in Honor shall provide to Claimant unconditional letters of absolute executor in Claimant's proper name for and regarding the Estate and Trust(s) signed by a magistrate in good standing with and of said State or a county within the same. These said letters shall be given to Claimant within ninety (90) days from this appointment and shall originate from the probate court which shall be a court of record. Claimant may provide to said first Trustee in Honor and/or provide to the probate court these said letters. The clerk of the probate court shall accept the filing of the same into a formal probate case along with all documents given or served upon the First Trustee(s) in Honor by Claimant or Claimant's Officers regarding the Estate and Trust(s), and the said court shall find that all said documents filed by Claimant or Claimant's Officers listed herein are valid and enforceable and shall do so immediately with all haste. Said first Trustee(s) in Honor shall include but not be limited to all stated in xxxiii) above. All other Clauses in Claim apply to first Trustee(s) in Honor.
- h) Novation clause: If any appointed trustee shall perform any Binding Action stated herein by way of occupation of an office and said trustee terminates the occupation of said office by term limitation or otherwise, then it shall be the duty of said trustee to inform the new holder and occupant of their former office of Claim before the new office holder is to officially take and hold said office. Failure to perform this order shall be an immediate forfeiture of the bond of the former office holder(s) / trustee(s) as stated in section 12) a) below to Claimant. This is for the protection of Claimant and the new office holder. All office holders are bound in perpetuity in the same manner and to the same degree as the trustee first served with or having notice of Claim that held that office. Any change in the man or woman who occupies said office will discharge the trustee that held the office and shall, by novation expromissio, transfer the said trustee appointment to the new holder of said office regardless if the new holder of said office has been served with Claim or not. The Claimant may alter this Claim at any time as Claimant sees fit to do so without the consent of any trustee or third party whatsoever and may re-file the same onto the public record at which time the new Claim shall stand as the new contract and bind all trustee(s) to the same from that point in time onward. Any and all who were bound under any former version of Claim shall also be bound to any new version of Claim without any interruption in duty or obligation unless otherwise specified.

- i) Non-specific responses of trustees: All Bound Trustee(s) agree that failure or refusal to respond to Claimant regarding Claim and/or failure to provide the requested and necessary accounting and livery as stated herein and/or to give a general response, a non-specific response, or to respond altogether with specificities and facts and conclusions of the common law and/or to provide the requested information and documentation that is required under Claim shall constitute a failure and a deliberate and intentional refusal to respond to Claimant and, as a result thereby and/or therein, shall constitute the consent and agreement by trustee(s) to all Clauses herein and shall be their binding agreement and free assent to all that is stated in Claim.
- j) Failure to respond within ninety days of being served with Claim: All appointed trustees have ninety (90) days from being process served with or having notice of Claim to respond to Claimant at the address above with any corrections, questions, or challenges to Claim in writing point by point via registered mail and to provide proof of trustee's claim to the contrary under oath or attestation and behind the appointed trustee's full commercial liability and under penalty of perjury. A lack of response or a non-specific response that does not contain proof of Claimant's possible mistaken understanding regarding all that is stated herein shall be seen and agreed to by all Bound Trustee(s) as a full and complete agreement of Claimant's understanding of all that is contained in Claim. Failure to dispute all claims made herein will result in an automatic default judgment and permanent and irrevocable estoppel by acquiescence and tacit procuration on the part of all appointed trustees named herein and all third parties. If any appointed trustee performs Binding Action One, then Trustee in Honor will then agree to waive this section 6) j) forever and be bound to all that is stated in Claim regardless if they have sent the stated response or not.
- k) Understanding of words and final tribunal of Claim: All appointed trustee(s), and all others who read, or have knowledge of this Claim, agree that all words in this Claim are as Claimant comprehends them, and that Claimant is the absolute and final tribunal of all that is stated and claimed herein.
- l) Continual providing of utilities: The appointed trustees shall not under any circumstances disrupt any currently provided utility which Claimant, Estate, or Trust(s) now enjoys. All utility companies have been appointed trustee(s) of the Estate and Trust(s), and these trustee(s), in addition to all other Clauses stated herein, do hereby and henceforth, by taking Binding Action One, agree to be taxed by Claimant for the use of the easement upon Claimant's Allodial land at the exact rate and amount that the providing utility company charges Claimant or the Estate or the Trust for any utility now being provided to the same. The rate of tax shall always match the stated bill or statement provided by the said utility forever. Claimant decrees that no paper receipt to the said utility company regarding said tax is needed as long as the said utility company updates their records to reveal this agreement and sends to Claimant proof of this update as shown on their records. This Clause shall apply to any and all utilities provided to the domicile of Claimant and the domicile of every member of Claimant's House forever. Any disconnection of any utility after service of Claim shall be deemed and seen and found to be a retaliatory action against Claimant as stated in Clause 13) below and shall then bind the retaliatory trustee to all the Clauses and obligations of sections 13), 14), and 15) under Binding Clause Three below. This Clause shall be enforced as stated herein.
- m) Supremacy clause: All Clauses, words, law, maxims, decrees, executive orders, orders, facts, findings, definitions, rules, terms, conditions, agreements, obligations, statements of wish and will, protections, and means stated herein by Claimant regarding Claimant, the Estate, and Trust(s) supersede any and all other of the same or like kind by any appointed trustee, Bound Trustee, or third party at any time and place forever nunc pro tunc et usque ad finem temporis. Claim supersedes and predates as well as replaces any and all prior agreement(s) between Claimant and all trustee(s) and is binding on all parties and irrevocable. Furthermore, the parties to Claim agree from the moment of their Binding Actions as stated herein to the terms and conditions of Claim and agree that Claim supersedes and predates as well as replaces any other existing or future agreements, contracts, wills, pledges, oaths, rulings, court findings, claims, judgments, charges, hearings, orders, liens, fiduciary agreements, letters, administration, or vesting of power that contradict anything stated herein. All trustee(s) agree that all final judgments entered by Claimant's court of record and all arbitration awards given by an arbitrator regarding any dispute relating to Claim and all judgments entered on the same shall be binding on all trustee(s) in any and all jurisdictions shall be confirmed upon demand by any and all courts of Claimant's choosing and shall take precedence over all matters regarding the Estate and Trust(s) at present and forthwith from the date of entry of said final judgment and/or arbitration award and/or confirmation or judgment upon said award(s). All parties agree that a judgment of the court of Claimant's choice for any arbitration award given regarding Claim shall be entered upon the award made pursuant to the arbitration and that said judgment shall be entered upon the said award within one year after the award is made. Furthermore, all Bound Trustee(s) are estopped from maintaining and/or bringing forth any actions against Claimant, Claimant's heirs, and/or bringing forth the same against all that is stated in List regarding the Estate and Trust(s) permanently. Exceeding this estoppel shall be seen and determined by Claimant, Claimant's court of record, and all arbitrators as retaliation against Claimant.

- n) Severability clause: If any Clause, provision, claim, statement, fact, section, condition, requirement, term, obligation, or condition of Claim is found by a common law court of record to be unlawful, void, or unenforceable, the remaining of said shall remain in full force and effect and shall continue to be valid and fully enforceable.
- o) Claimant's obligation to discharge Trustees in Honor: Trustees in Honor agree that they shall remain trustees until they fulfill all of the executive orders and instructions from Claimant stated herein as well as all other past and future orders from Claimant regarding everything stated in List within ninety (90) days of service of Claim. Once said executive orders are fulfilled to the satisfaction of Claimant, Claimant will, upon request from said trustee(s), send a signed and sealed letter of honorable discharge to any and all trustee(s) who perform the same to the satisfaction of Claimant. Failure by any Trustee in Honor to faithfully execute all Clauses herein within the terms stated shall result in a lawful default of the bond stated in section 12) a), and if in the event a trustee has failed to post a bond as stated herein, then an action of debt collection in a court of record and/or binding arbitration proceedings shall commence against all trustee(s) in default, and the stated amount of the bond and liens shall be placed on the property of trustee(s) as stated in section 12) c) and 14) e) for the same amount and kind as stated in the bond amount in 12) a) below, and furthermore, trustee(s) agree to forfeit the agreed distribution of Estate and Trust fund assets (compensation of Trustee(s) in Honor) as stated in 6) p) below forever.
- p) Trustee in Honor compensation clause: Trustees in Honor shall be compensated by Claimant in the amount of 10% of whatever funds, financial instruments, bonds, accounts, and the like of a financial nature, herein "Estate and Trust funds", that they account for and deliver to Claimant as stated in List regarding the Estate and Trust(s). All of the Estate and Trust funds shall be converted into lawful and valuable consideration (gold or silver) before the 10% payment to the Trustees in Honor and shall be distributed to each Trustee in Honor who prove to the satisfaction of Claimant of the following: 1) that they have fulfilled the orders stated herein that require Trustee(s) in Honor to have a full accounting, settlement, delivery, recovery, and livery of seisin of that portion of the Estate and Trust funds that they have administered and that the Trustee in Honor shall have fulfilled their obligation to settle and/or terminate or collapse all Trust(s) that they are aware of as stated herein; and 2) that Trustees are to keep proper records of all transactions of the Estate and Trust, to keep proper records of all actions they take in regards to the Estate and Trust(s), and to deliver to Claimant those said records as part of the proof of their faithful execution of all Clauses that they are bound to herein to receive the distribution as stated above. Because the Estate and Trust funds are the sole lawful property of Claimant and the Bound Trustee(s) have a duty to return that which does not belong to them, the Bound Trustee(s) fully agree and stipulate to the fact that the 10% compensation to them as stated herein is, by intendment of law, to their advantage.

Said compensation shall be given upon request with letters of discharge from this trustee appointment as stated in section 6) o) after the Trustees in Honor faithfully execute their duties as set forth herein. For example, if a Trustee in Honor holds an account in the Estate name and performs as required and that account is in the amount of $1,000,000, then that Trustee in Honor shall be compensated in the amount of $100,000 converted into silver or gold at the current exchange rate. Any debts incurred by the Trustees in Honor against the Estate or Trust(s) prior to this audit will be deducted from the 10% settlement offer. If the debts accrued exceed the value of the 10%, no compensation will be provided and a bill shall, instead, be issued for the outstanding balance. Land titles, land rights, land, the bodies of Claimant, or members of Claimant's House or any other thing that would cause harm if divided shall not be part of the 10% payment nor be included in the calculation for the 10% payment.

- q) Non-aggression clause: All trustees who bind themselves to Claim to any degree agree to be bound and adhere to the non-aggression principal of natural law at all times whilst under obligation to perform under Claim and to NOT cause any harm, coercion, theft, trespass, murder, rape, or human trafficking against Claimant or members of Claimant's House. Furthermore, Bound Trustees shall not trespass upon any rights of Claimant, or they will agree to be Trustee(s) in Default and thereby bind themselves to all the Clauses under Binding Clause Three.
- r) Help and support clause: All trustees who bind themselves to Claim to any degree agree to be under absolute obligation to inform, teach, help, and support Claimant to settle the entire gross Estate at all times and to collapse the Trust(s) as stated herein until such time as said trustees are discharged from being a Trustee in Honor or other degree of trustee by Claimant as stated in section 6) o). Any failure to perform this absolute obligation will cause said trustees to agree to be bound to all the Clauses under a Trustee in Dishonor as set forth below.
- s) Inclusion of all trustees by employment or agency: If any employee, agent, or member of any appointed trustee listed herein administers any aspect of the Estate or Trust(s) in any way, thereby binding them to Claim, all other employees, agents, contractors, men, and women of that same appointed trustee shall also agree to be bound to Claim in like kind and degree.
- t) Arbitration and court of record clauses regarding procedure of disputes arising from Claim: ARBITRATION: Claim constitutes an agreement and a binding contract between Claimant and all Bound Trustee(s) (and third parties who bind themselves to Claim by performing any Binding Actions stated herein). In the event a Bound Trustee fails to perform as required under any Binding Clause, Claimant has the choice at that time to pursue all disputes related to Claim by binding arbitration or by a court of record as defined herein. If Claimant chooses binding arbitration, all Trustee(s) agree that the arbitrator to any dispute regarding claim shall be appointed and chosen by Claimant and shall be the designated arbitrator for said dispute. In the event of non-acceptance of appointment as arbitrator and/or any physical or mental incapacity to act as arbitrator, the Claimant shall have the authority to select any neutral arbitrator(s) that qualify to handle any controversy or claim arising out of or relating in any way to Claim or with regard to its formation, interpretation, or breach, and any issues of substantive or procedural arbitration shall be settled in the manner previously stated. If Claimant chooses arbitration and not an action at law, the arbitrator may hear and decide the controversy upon evidence produced even if a party who was duly notified of the arbitration proceeding did not appear. The arbitrator will not and does not have the authority to disregard or to refuse to enforce the law decreed herein nor the law decreed by Claimant in any other paperwork regarding the Estate and Trust(s) which is submitted to the arbitrator. All disputes arising from Claim shall first be attempted to be solved by and through negotiations between Claimant and the appointed trustee(s). If the Claimant and any appointed trustee(s) cannot resolve a dispute through negotiations and the Claimant chooses to resolve the dispute by arbitration, the Claimant and all Bound Trustee(s) agree and consent to submit any and all disputes which could otherwise be submitted to a court of competent jurisdiction to arbitration. Arbitration hereunder these conditions said shall be the exclusive remedy of Claimant and all appointed trustee(s) or third parties, and the arbitrator is empowered under this Claim to make any or all necessary and appropriate order(s), pre-award ruling(s), and award(s) granting both legal, lawful, and equitable relief to enforce the terms and obligations of this Claim, including all matters relating hereto and arising therefrom. In the event of any conflict of laws, maxims, facts, provisions, terms, Clauses, conditions, definitions, orders, or rules regarding any arbitration dispute of Claim, the same stated in Claim shall govern. If Claimant chooses binding arbitration, all Bound Trustee(s), regardless of the degree to which they bind themselves to Claim, agree to enter into and consent to binding arbitration under the terms and conditions of Claim, and all Bound Trustee(s) of any degree waive all rights to vacate, modify, appeal, or collaterally attack the decisions, rulings, orders, remedies, and awards (both interim and final) of the arbitrator. All United States trustee(s) furthermore agree that transporting people or persons without their consent across State lines is human trafficking and evidences a transaction involving or affecting "commerce" within the meaning of Title 9 U.S.C. § 1. Furthermore, all Bound Trustee(s) agree that Claimant can secure restitution for damages via any and all actions under reservation of right of prosecution at any time for all injuries sustained and inflicted upon Claimant, the Estate, or Trust(s) for any wrongs committed against the same as set, established, agreed, and consented to herein by the Bound Trustee(s) by their Binding Actions to include but not to be limited to constitutional impermissible misapplication of statutes / laws regarding Claimant, the Estate, and Trust(s) which include but are not limited to alleged criminal case / cause, trespass, false arrest, false imprisonment, fraud, conspiracy, theft, deprivation of rights, human trafficking, all tort claims, trespass of title, probate fraud, property, and the like and all other known and unknown trespasses and moral wrongs committed through ultra vires acts of all involved herein whether by commission or omission. Final amount of damages regarding said to be calculated prior to submission of said actions but is already estimated to be in excess of three hundred million dollars with or without notice to Bound Trustee(s) by invoice or true bill in commerce. Trustee(s) consent to and agree that Claim, all other executive orders hereafter served upon the said Bound Trustee(s), and the required bond that all Trustee(s) in Dishonor must post as stated herein becomes the security agreement between Claimant and said trustee(s) under commercial law. Trustee(s) consent to and agree that judgment shall be entered and confirmed on any arbitration award in favor of Claimant of any dispute regarding Claim and consent to and agree that they have no right, authority, or cause to attack or vacate the same by any means or for any reason.

- u) Settlement via Court of Record: If Claimant chooses to settle any disputes arising from Claim by a court of record, then all Bound Trustees agree by tacit procuracy to be tried under the common law, the law of Claimant's domicile as Claimant decrees the law to be, and any and all public law that Claimant decrees to be the law in a court of record under reservation of right of prosecution for any actionable offense and that said court of record will proceed according to the course of the common law with the rules of said court being whatever Claimant decrees them to be without having to be bound to follow any statutes, equity, or codes under military jurisdiction, ecclesiastical jurisdiction, Roman civil law, maritime admiralty jurisdiction, or any other jurisdiction save for the common law and the law of Claimant's domicile and that Claimant shall be the sole lawful tribunal of said court of record with the power to fine and imprison for contempt of court. If Claimant chooses to resolve any dispute arising from Claim in a court of record, then Claimant will demand payment for damages in the amount agreed to from said trustee(s) in 12) a) below as well as any other amount to be added as per Claimant's Affidavit of Fee Schedule if the said trustee(s) are in default of Claim as stated herein, and Claimant also shall demand and have the right to collect any and all punitive damage amounts as calculated and stated herein.

- v) Stipulation and binding agreement of trustee(s): In accordance with and pursuant to the principles and doctrines of "clean hands", "agreement by performance", and "good faith", the actions of trustee(s) binding them to Claim, as stated in Claim, constitute a contractually binding agreement by free assent between the Claimant and the Bound Trustee(s) regarding all stated in Claim, and Bound Trustee(s) expressly consent to, stipulate, and affirm the truth and validity of the said facts listed herein and agree to be bound to the law listed herein and to understand the definitions listed herein as they operate in favor of Claimant through tacit acquiescence. Any and all trustee(s) agree not to argue, controvert, oppose, misinterpret, misconstrue, dilute, or otherwise protest any of the facts, law, or definitions already agreed upon by the trustee(s) set and established herein or in any future proceedings / actions including but not limited to binding arbitration and/or any case or proceeding in any court of record at law or otherwise that are decreed and affirmed by Claimant.

Penalty for failure to appear: Any Bound Trustee(s) that cannot, will not, or fails to personally appear for any reason whatsoever before the arbitrator or court of record alongside its or her representative for any dispute or action arising from Claim either in part or in full agrees and consents to an irrevocable default judgment in favor of Claimant and waives any future standing or right to appeal or reopen any dispute regarding Claim for any reason whatsoever and agrees that they are instantly, automatically, and irrevocably bound to all of the terms and Clauses herein. Said Bound Trustee(s) shall give written, signed, and sealed notice to Claimant ten (10) days before any hearing that more time is required by the Bound Trustee to be able to appear, and no more than thirty (30) days shall be granted to the Bound Trustee(s) for rescheduling the appearance. Failure to send said notice shall be considered as failure to appear. Non-Indians who lawfully enter tribal lands remain subject to a tribe's power to exclude them, which power includes the lesser power to tax or place other conditions on the non-Indian's conduct or continued presence on the reservation. The Tribe's role as commercial partner with petitioners should not be confused with its role as sovereign. It is one thing to find that the Tribe has agreed to sell the right to use the land and take valuable minerals from it, and quite another to find that the Tribe has abandoned its sovereign powers simply because it has not expressly reserved them through a contract. - c) Court: "A court is an agency of the sovereign created by it directly or indirectly under its authority, consisting of one or more officers, established and maintained for the purpose of hearing and determining issues of law and fact regarding legal rights and alleged violations thereof, and of applying the sanctions of the law, authorized to exercise its powers in the course of law at times and places previously determined by lawful authority." [Isbill v. Stovall, Tex.Civ.App., 92 S.W.2d 1067, 1070; Black's Law Dictionary, 4th Ed., page 425]
- d) Magistrate: "The word 'magistrate' does not necessarily imply an officer exercising any judicial functions, and might very well be held to embrace notaries and commissioners of deeds." Shultz v. Merchants' Ins. Co., 57 Mo. 336.
- e) Clause (contracts): "a particular disposition which makes part of a treaty; of an act of the legislature; of a deed, written agreement, or other written contract or will. When a clause is obscurely written, it ought to be construed in such a way as to agree with what precedes and what follows, if possible." Vide Dig. 50, 17, 77; Construction; Interpretation.
- f) Condition (contracts, wills): "In its most extended signification, a condition is a clause in a contract or agreement which has for its object to suspend, to rescind, or to modify the principal obligation; or in case of a will, to suspend, revoke, or modify the devise or bequest." 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 730. "A condition is any portion or agreement which regulates what the parties have a mind should be done, if a case they foresee should come to pass." Co. Litt. 201 a.
- g) Condition (persons): "The situation in civil society which creates certain relations between the individual, to whom it is applied, and one or more others, from which mutual rights and obligations arise. Thus the situation arising from marriage gives rise to the conditions of husband and wife that of paternity to the conditions of father and child." Domat, tom. 2, liv. 1, tit. 9, s. 1, n. 8.
"2. In contracts, everyone is presumed to know the condition of the person with whom he deals. A man making a contract with an infant cannot recover against him for a breach of the contract, on the ground that he was not aware of his condition."
- h) Obligation: "In its general and most extensive sense, obligation is synonymous with duty. In a more technical meaning, it is a tie which binds us to pay or to do something agreeably to the laws and customs of the country in which the obligation is made." Just. Inst. 1. 3, t. 14. "The term obligation also signifies the instrument or writing by which the contract is witnessed. And in another sense, an obligation still subsists, although the civil obligation is said to be a bond containing a penalty, with a condition annexed for the payment of money, performance of covenants or the like; it differs from a bill, which is generally without a penalty or condition, though it may be obligatory." Co. Litt. 172. "It is also defined to be a deed whereby a man binds himself under a penalty to do a thing. Com. Dig. Obligation, A. The word obligation, in its most technical signification, ex vi termini, imports a sealed instrument." 2 S. & R. 502; 6 Verm. 40; 1 Blackf. 241; Harp. R. 434; 2 Porter, 19; 1 Bald. 129. See 1 Bell's Com. b. 3, p. 1, c. 1, page 293; Bouv. Inst. Index, h. t.
"6. A civil obligation is one which has a binding operation in law, vinculum juris, and which gives to the obligee the right of enforcing it in a court of justice; in other words, it is an engagement binding on the obligor." 12 Wheat. It.: 318, 337; 4 Wheat. R. 197.

“14. A principal obligation is one which is the most important object of the engagement of the contracting parties.”

“16. An absolute obligation is one which gives no alternative to the obligor, but he is bound to fulfill it according to his engagement.”

“20. A determinate obligation is one which has for its object a certain thing; as an obligation to deliver a certain horse named Bucephalus. In this case, the obligation can only be discharged by delivering the identical horse.”

“31. The obligation is both personal and real when the obligor has bound himself, and pledged his estate for the fulfillment of his obligation.”

[emphasis added]

- i) Primary: “that which is first or principal; as primary evidence, or that evidence which is to be admitted in the first instance, as distinguished from secondary evidence, which is allowed only when primary evidence cannot be had.”

“2. A primary obligation is one which is the principal object of the contract; for example, the primary obligation of the seller is to deliver the thing sold, and to transfer the title to it. It is distinguished from the accessory or secondary obligation to pay damages for not doing so.” 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 702.

[emphasis added]

- j) Term (contracts): “This word is used in the civil law to denote the space of time granted to the debtor for discharging his obligation; there are express terms resulting from the positive stipulations of the agreement; as, where one undertakes to pay a certain sum on a certain day and also terms which tacitly result from the nature of the things which are the object of the engagement, or from the place where the act is agreed to be done. For instance, if a builder engages to construct a house for me, I must allow a reasonable time for fulfilling his engagement. 2. A term is either of right or of grace; when it makes part of the agreement and is expressly or tacitly included in it, it is of right when it is not part of the agreement, it is of grace; as if it is not afterwards granted by the judge at the requisition of the debtor.” Poth. on Oblig. P. 2, c. 3, art. 3; 1 Bouv. Inst. n. 719 et seq.

- k) The term "records" shall mean all records, system of records, library catalogs, lists, files, optical, handwriting, typewriting, printing, photostating, photographing, photocopying, electronic and physically stored information, and every other means of recording including letters, words, pictures, sounds, or symbols or combinations thereof as well as papers, maps, magnetic or paper tapes, photographic films or prints, microfilm, microfiche, magnetic or punched cards, discs, drums, or other means of recording or retaining meaningful content.

- l) Estate: “1. In its most extensive sense, it is applied to signify everything of which riches or fortune may consist and includes personal and real property; hence we say personal estate, real estate.” 8 Ves. 504. “2. An estate, in common law, is the net worth of a man at any point in time living or dead. It is the sum of a man's assets - legal rights, interests and entitlements to property of any kind - less all liabilities at that time. 3. All that a man owns in law.”

- m) Freehold (estates): “An estate of freehold is an estate in lands or other real property, held by a free tenure, for the life of the tenant or that of some other person; or for some uncertain period. It is called liberum tenementum, frank tenement or freehold; it was formerly described to be such an estate as could only be created by livery of seisin, a ceremony similar to the investiture of the feudal law. But since the introduction of certain modern conveyances, by which an estate of freehold may be created without livery of seisin, this description is not sufficient.”

“2. There are two qualities essentially requisite to the existence of a freehold estate. 1. Immobility; that is, the subject-matter must either be land, or some interest issuing out of or annexed to land. 2. A sufficient legal indeterminate duration; for if the utmost period of time to which an estate can last, is fixed and determined, it is not an estate of freehold. For example, if lands are conveyed to a man and his heirs, or for his life, or for the life of another, or until he shall be married, or go to Europe, he has an estate of freehold; but if such lands are limited to a man for one hundred or five hundred years, if he shall so long live, he has not an estate of freehold.” Cruise on Real Property t. 1, s. 13, 14 and 15 Litt. 59; 1 Inst. 42, a; 5 Mass. R. 419; 4 Kent, Com. 23; 2 Bouv. Inst. 1690, et seq. “Freehold estates are of inheritance or not of inheritance.” Cruise, t. 1, s. 42.

- n) Freeholder: a wo/man who is the landlord of a freehold estate.
- o) Freeman: one who is in the enjoyment of the right to do whatever he pleases, not forbidden by law; one in the possession of the rights enjoyed by, the people generally.
- p) Shall: used to express a command or exhortation; used in laws, regulations, contracts, or directives to express what is mandatory.
- q) Dollars as defined herein shall mean each to be of the value of a Spanish milled dollar as the same is now current and to contain three hundred and seventy-one grains and four sixteenth parts of a grain of pure or four hundred and sixteen grains of standard silver as per 1 U.S. Stat. 246, Sec. 9 (1792).
- r) Sovereignty: “the union and exercise of all human power possessed in a state; it is a combination of all power; it is the power to do everything in a state without accountability; to make laws, to execute and to apply them: to impose and collect taxes, and, levy, contributions; to make war or peace; to form treaties of alliance or of commerce with foreign nations, and the like.” Story on the Const. § 207

this is a notice of liability regarding the act of trespass, fee schedule, and remedy for protection from Federal / State / County / City / Municipal / Corporate employees, individuals, and agents; i, woman, calling as anne-frances: mcshane., holder of the office of the people in the state known as Delaware or in any other state of the union, am hereby, as a gesture of peace, giving proper notice to the STATE OF DELAWARE or to any State / corporation, to the UNITED STATES CORPORATION, and to all municipal, county, city, and town agencies/ corporations and other STATE Corporations of the following:

as a peaceful, natural person desiring to avoid conflict and to live lawfully with all of my freedoms, i am providing you with this affidavit of fee schedule and remedy for protection from Federal / State / County / City / Municipal / Corporate employees, agents, and individuals as a courtesy and as a remedy should one decide to trespass upon me or my family members; failure to know or to obey any and all of your thousands of corporate regulations does not constitute a crime absent a victim, damaged property, or fraud (the corpus delecti);

if thou should face a properly empaneled jury, thou should know that the jury has sworn duty to judge the law and the facts, jury nullification, and the jury can provide just remedy for the man / woman / people who bring a claim; in every criminal prosecution, it is necessary to establish the "corpus delecti" (i.e., the body or elements of the crime);

"The corpus delecti consists of two elements- namely, (1) the injury or loss of harm; and (2) a criminal agency causing them to exist." (People v. Frey, 165 Cal. 140, 146 [131 P. 127]. People v. Lopez, etc.)

please note that this affidavit of fee schedule and remedy for personal protection from Federal / State / County / City / Municipal / Corporate employees, agents, and individuals is just and modest and well below the precedent set by Trezevant v. City of Tampa wherein the damages established were $25,000 for 23 minutes of unlawful arrest; this particular remedy calculates to more than $1.8 million per day; the above is my fee schedule for all trespasses to be considered by a lawful jury of the people; fees for counsel and other fees (including applicable late fees) are not included in this Fee Schedule; and

The United States Supreme Court has stated the following in U.S. v. Cruikshank (92 U.S. 542 at 551):

"...between the People of the United States, any resident within any state, or any other national that there need be no conflict between any of them. The powers which one possesses, the other does not; the laws are established for different purposes and have separate jurisdictions; together, they make one whole and furnish the People of the United States with a complete government, ample for protection of all of their rights at home and abroad; it may sometimes happen that a 'person' is amenable to both jurisdictions for the same act; it is the natural consequence of a citizen which owes allegiance to two sovereignties and claims protection from both."

the public citizen cannot complain because he/she has voluntarily submitted themselves to such a form of government; the opinion in this case is 100% correct as long as one is referring to the People of the United States.

neither i nor anyone from my family is of the UNITED STATES; We are of yhwh, the most high creator;

let it be clear that a people is not a person, and a person is not a people; true sovereignty is within the people who have all private rights, but citizens, on the other hand, are subjects (by their own voluntary choice) of the state government and of local and federal government corporations in exchange for privileges and civil rights;

let it be clear that i am not a person / citizen / employee / subject of any corporation which cannot, under color of law, act as a lawful government; let it be clear that we have only one Sovereignty, and that Sovereignty is the most high creator of flesh and blood man;

i do not claim any benefit of said guarantees and are included solely as a reference to the law and conduct of named and unnamed respondents; Bible references are from the King James Bible and are used due to the oaths of office being sworn upon it; the use of Bible references in this affidavit of fee schedule and remedy are for jurisdictional purposes only, and no adherence or non-adherence to any organized religious group including but not limited to registered corporate organizations on the part of the affiants may be assumed;

natural law

the natural law is that which yhwh (God), the sovereign creator over the universe, has prescribed to man not by any formal promulgation but by the internal dictates of reason alone; it is discovered by a just consideration of the agreeableness of actions to the nature of man, and it comprehends all the duties which we owe either to the supreme being, to ourselves, or to our neighbors as reverence to yhwh, self-defense, temperance, honor to our parents, benevolence to all strict adherence to our engagements, gratitude, and the like; written in the Constitution for the united States of America, we find the 11th article, amendment 9: "The enumeration in the Constitution, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people;"
